War of 1812 poem

PATRIOTS AND PIONEERS

Back in the past, o'er five score years,
There came and settled here
Those dauntless, sturdy pioneers
Whose mem'ry we revere.
These men had won, despite our foes,
The freedom of the sea;
They were the loyal sons of those
Who made our Nation free.

Log-cabin homes, of frontier days,
Had but a single room,
A fireplace with its cheerful blaze,
A spinning-wheel, a loom,
A table, bed, and trundle-bed,
Some stools, say three or four,
A Bible which they oft-times read,
A rifle o'er the door.

Our hearts will ever thrill with pride
That there is in our veins
The blood of those who oft defied
The perils of the plains.
God grant that our descendants may
Be just as brave and true
As were our sires, to whom we pay
This tribute, justly due.

William F. E. Gurley.

November 2,1931.

Mrs. Henry William English,
Regent, Francis Scott Key Chapter,
U. S. Daughters of 1812 State of Illinois,
Jacksonville, Illinois.

Madam Regent: - The above lines, written at your reque are dedicated to those pioneers of Illinois who served the War of 1812.

Wm F E Gurley

THE CRUSADERS

O that soul inspiring story,
Telling of heroic men;
Brush cannot portray its glory;
Neither can the tongue, nor pen.
Story which can never perish;
Story told for ages past;
Story which all men will cherish
Just as long as time shall last.

—Wm F E Gurley
